Burton Emmanuel United Methodist Church Records, 1914-2010

History Note:

In 1913, the young men's Sunday School class, "Knights of the Cross," of Fourth Ward Evangelical Church of Flint (later First Church and then Hope United Methodist Church), purchased land in Kearsley Park, upon which the Kearsley Park Mission Congregation met. The congregation of this new church grew rapidly and in 1915, they laid the cornerstone for a new church, which was dedicated in 1916. In 1957, the church relocated to the intersection of Davison Road and Willmar Street in Burton, Michigan. The church changes its name to Burton Emmanuel Evangelical United Brethren Church on 7 April 1963. They began construction of a new building on 21 August 1963 and dedicated it on 19 January 1964. The church closed 30 June 2010.
