Detroit Conference United Methodist Women Records, 1974-2011

History Note:

Soon after the merger of the Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren Church in 1968 to form the United Methodist Church, an effort began to rename the Women's Society of Christian Service to reflect this new union. Although approved at the national level in 1972, this reorganization and name change did not fully take effect in Michigan until 1 January 1974.

Scope Note:

The subject file contains such materials minutes of the Executive Committee, newsletters, yearbooks (annual reports/directories), financial records, and records of committees. Topics include organizational matters, annual meetings, elected leadership training, and the work of conference and district missionaries (including a significant file of missionary letters giving updates on activities). A separate series contains extensive material about the annual School of Christian Mission conducted by the UMW.

Extent:

8.8 linear feet (ca. 17,600 pages)

Access Restrictions:

The collection is open to research.

Restrictions on Use:

Photocopying is handled by the staff and may be limited in certain instances. Before using any material for publication from this collection a formal request for permission to publish is expected and required.
