Harold and Adele Gloyd Personal Papers, 1920-2012

Biographical Note:

Harold Gloyd (1908-1974) and his wife Adele (1912-2012) were active members of Detroit Woodmere Methodist Church for many years. In 1953, they joined with others from Woodmere in a missionary effort to establish a Methodist church in Allen Park. This effort resulted in the creation of Allen Park Trinity Methodist Church. The Gloyds remained active in that church for the rest of their lives, but retained many ties to Woodmere.

Scope Note:

The Gloyds were very active in both churches and saved much about their activities and the history of these two churches. Included are copies of Sunday bulletins, directories, anniversary booklets, and materials concerning specific interests and activities of the Gloyds. In addition, the collection contains a few items about the history of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Morenci, Michigan.

Extent:

2.0 linear feet (ca. 4,000 pages)

Access Restrictions:

The collection is open to research.

Restrictions on Use:

Photocopying is handled by the staff and may be limited in certain instances. Before using any material for publication from this collection a formal request for permission to publish is expected and required.
