Ishpeming Salisbury United Methodist Church Records, 1893-2013

History Note:

After the closing of the Saginaw Mine at Stoneville, Michigan, a number of Methodist families from there moved near the Salisbury Mine at Ishpeming. This led to the organization of the Salisbury Methodist Episcopal Church in 1883. After meeting in a school for several years, they moved the unused church from Stoneville to Ishpeming. They soon outgrew this building and built a new church in 1891. The church closed around 2012.

Scope Note:

In addition to a History File on the church, the collection contains vital records, meeting minutes, directories, bulletins, newsletters, and charge and quarterly conference reports.

Extent:

2.4 linear feet (ca. 4,800 pages)

Access Restrictions:

The collection is open to research.

Restrictions on Use:

Photocopying is handled by the staff and may be limited in certain instances. Before using any material for publication from this collection a formal request for permission to publish is expected and required.
