Michigan Conference Evangelical United Brethren Church Women's Society of World Service Records, 1951-1969

History Note:

The society was a general women's organization with missions as its central focus. It was the successor to the Women's Missionary Association of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ and the Woman's Missionary Society of the Evangelical Church. It existed until the merger of the EUB with the Methodist Church in 1968.

Scope Note:

The collection contains meeting minutes, plans, reports, correspondence, and unpublished histories of the organization, including its predecessors in the United Brethren and Evangelical churches.

Records Note:

The records of the national office of the Women's Society of World Service are held by the General Commission on Archives and History of the United Methodist Church and are described at <http://archives.gcah.org/publicdata/gcah4516.htm>.

Extent:

1.2 linear feet (ca. 2,400 pages)

Access Restrictions:

The collection is open to research.

Restrictions on Use:

Photocopying is handled by the staff and may be limited in certain instances. Before using any material for publication from this collection a formal request for permission to publish is expected and required.
