Saginaw Jefferson Avenue United Methodist Church Records, 1865-2007

History Note:

This church was dedicated in the fall of 1855 as the “Little Brown Church”. When the congregation outgrew this church, the building was sold to the Presbyterian Society in 1864. The cornerstone for the new church was laid 27 May 1867. In 1899, the name of the church was changed to Jefferson Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church of Saginaw. The church closed around 2009.

Scope Note:

In addition to a History File on the church, the collection contains bulletins, correspondence, and vital records, including baptisms, marriages, and membership records. This collection also includes a book written about the original church.

Extent:

3.0 linear feet (ca. 6,000 pages)

Access Restrictions:

The collection is open to research.

Restrictions on Use:

Photocopying is handled by the staff and may be limited in certain instances. Before using any material for publication from this collection a formal request for permission to publish is expected and required.
