United Methodist Union of Greater Detroit Records, 1940-1981 (2001)

History Note:

The Methodist Union was formed in 1919 from Methodist Sunday School Alliances, the Board of Home Missions, and individual churches. Its initial focus was meeting the needs of new ethnic groups in Detroit, but over the years it has developed a variety of programs serving the churches and the people of the Detroit Renaissance District of the United Methodist Church.

Scope Note:

The collection contains reports of annual meetings, correspondence, newsletters, clippings, and materials on the Union's assistance to individual Methodist churches. The church files relate primarily to property and buildings and often contain deeds, mortgages, and title abstracts in addition to correspondence with the Methodist Union and its attorneys.

Access Restrictions:

The collection is open to research.
